

Module 5 Workbook — Design-Ready Content

"Build & Send Your Pitch"

Purpose of this document: the finished, design-ready content for the Module 5 workbook. This is an action workbook — the creator builds a real pitch to a real brand and sends it. Uses the shared workbook design system from Module 1 (cover block, section headers, input glossary, quick-win callout, reference callout, completion gate, footer). Module-specific content below.

Annotation key: [INPUT: ...] = fillable element + suggested space · [NOTE: ...] = design intent · unbracketed text = final on-page copy.

Asset tie-ins: uses the Outreach Email & DM Templates pack, the Subject-Line Swipe File, and the Outreach Tracker (introduced in Module 2). Pulls forward Module 1 numbers, the Module 2 target list + media kit, and the Module 4 range.

Cover Block

[NOTE: standard cover component. Progress dots 1–10 with dot 5 active.] - Course: The Complete Brand Partnership Playbook - Module 5 · The Perfect Pitch - Workbook: Build & Send Your Pitch - Promise line: Pick a real brand, build a pitch that gets read, and send it — on the right timing, with a follow-up plan.

PART A — Pick Your Target

[NOTE: fast launch. Pulls one brand from the Module 2 list so the creator works on a REAL pitch, not a hypothetical. Keep tight.]

Your purpose line (on page): Choose one brand from your Module 2 target list — ideally a high-priority one you've already warmed up.

- Brand: [INPUT: short line]
 - Contact name / email (or DM handle): [INPUT: short line]
 - Warmed up already? [INPUT: circle-one] Yes · Not yet [NOTE: if "Not yet," small nudge: "spend a few days engaging first – Module 2."]
 - Email or DM for this one? [INPUT: circle-one] Email · DM

PART B — Your Research Hooks

[NOTE: gathers the specific, recent details that power personalization. This is the difference between "before" and "after" pitches. Short capture fields.]

Your purpose line (on page): Specifics are what get replies. Find 2–3 real, recent things about this brand before you write a word.

[INPUT: three short lines:] - A recent launch, campaign, or post I noticed: [short line] - A brand value or message that aligns with mine: [short line] - A real signal my audience wants this (poll result, common comment/DM, FAQ): [short line] [NOTE: that third one is gold – flag it; it becomes the alignment paragraph.]

PART C — The Pitch Builder

[NOTE: THE core deliverable. Six labeled blocks matching the six-part anatomy, each with a fill field. Pull-forward fields from Modules 1, 2, 4 should be visually flagged. Design so the assembled blocks read top-to-bottom as a draft pitch.]

Your purpose line (on page): Fill each block, then assemble. Use your Outreach Templates pack as a starting point — personalize every bracket.

C1. Subject line — specific + value-focused (who you reach / the idea): [INPUT: short line]
[NOTE: example placeholder: "Partnership Idea: Bringing [Brand]'s refill line to 40K low-waste creators"]

C2. Opening — one specific, researched sentence (from Part B): [INPUT: long box, 2 lines]

C3. Value proposition — who you are + your best proof

[NOTE: from Module 1 – engagement rate + demographics, NOT just followers]: [INPUT: long box, 2–3 lines]

C4. Alignment — the specific overlap between your audience's need and their product [NOTE: use the Part B audience signal]: [INPUT: long box, 2 lines]

C5. Content ideas — 2–3 concrete concepts [NOTE: see Part D brainstorm]: [INPUT: long box, 3 lines]

C6. Call to action + signature — one clear next step + media kit attached [NOTE: Module 2 media kit]: [INPUT: long box, 2 lines]

Reference/example callout [NOTE: muted box – the "after" pitch from the teardown, condensed, so the creator has a model.] Model CTA: "Could we grab 15 minutes next week to talk it through? I've attached my media kit with full audience data."

PART D — Content Ideas Brainstorm

[NOTE: this is the standalone "Content-Ideas Brainstorm Worksheet" asset, embedded here. Give room to generate more than needed, then pick the best 2–3 for C5.]

Your purpose line (on page): Brainstorm freely, then pick your strongest 2–3 for the pitch. Each should feel native to your content and naturally feature the product.

[INPUT: idea list, 5 numbered lines, with a "★ use this" checkbox beside each:] 1. [fill] □ 2. [fill] □ 3. [fill] □ 4. [fill] □ 5. [fill] □

[NOTE: prompt strip below: "Think formats you already do well – a series, a comparison, a Reel, a 'day in the life,' a myth-buster, a tutorial."]

PART E — Timing & Follow-Up Plan

[NOTE: turns send-and-pray into a system. Pairs the seasonal/launch check with the concrete follow-up dates. The dates make the sequence run on a plan, not a mood.]

Your purpose line (on page): Right message, right time, with follow-ups already scheduled.

E1. Timing check [INPUT: circle-one] Now is right · Aim for a seasonal/launch window - If a window: which, and when do I send? [INPUT: short line]

[NOTE: reminder: pitch ~8–10 weeks ahead.]

E2. Follow-up schedule [INPUT: three date fields] - Send date: [date] - Follow-up 1 (+5–7 business days): [date] - Follow-up 2 (+5–7 more days): [date] - After 2 follow-ups, no reply → [printed] add back to list, retry in 6–12 months.

Quick-win callout [NOTE: highlighted box.] Most deals happen on the follow-up — your pitch was missed, not rejected. Log every pitch and follow-up in your Outreach Tracker so your outreach becomes a system that compounds.

Completion Gate

[NOTE: standard component. Note the active verb – SEND.] You're ready for Module 6 when you've: [INPUT: 4 checkboxes:] ☐ Built your complete six-part pitch (Part C) ☐ Chosen your 2–3 content ideas (Part D) ☐ Set your timing + both follow-up dates (Part E) ☐ Actually sent it — not just drafted it

When a brand replies "let's set up a call," you've moved from pitching to negotiating. That's Module 6.
